Jefferson is teaming up with the Philadelphia Self-Help and Resource Exchange (SHARE) to provide healthier meals for hundreds of thousands of city residents who rely on food pantries.

Take Time to SHARE by dropping off healthier non-perishable foods:

- Pasta sauce, lower in sodium
- Natural peanut butter without hydrogenated oil
- Fruit canned in its own juice or water, instead of high fructose corn syrup
- Rice, whole wheat pasta, whole grain cereal/oatmeal
- Low sodium soups and vegetables canned in water
- Canned fish (tuna packed in water, salmon, sardines)
- Canned and dried beans (white, red, pinto)

DATES: February 16 – February 26

DROP OFF LOCATIONS: Alumni Hall, Scott Library, JHN lobby, 925 Chestnut lobby, Gibbon Atrium and Methodist Hospital

For more information, contact Rickie Brawer at x5-2396 or Shelley Chamberlain at x5-5146.