

SCIENCE SLAM

WHAT IS SCIENCE SLAM?

Science Slam is a competition where scientists explain their research in short talks in an easily understandable and entertaining way for a non-expert audience. The audience is the judge and jury; the goal is to make them as enthusiastic about your work as you are! Cash prizes for all participants as well as 1st, 2nd, & 3rd place winners! Just want to watch? Come cheer on the participants & vote for your favorites. Free snacks & beverage tickets! RSVP to the info session at the link below.

SAVE THE DATE:
THURSDAY FEBRUARY 16 5PM
VENTURE CAFE @ UNIVERSITY CITY SCIENCE CENTER
(3675 MARKET ST.)

WANT TO PARTICIPATE?

- Info session Thursday January 19 at 3pm (required); RSVP at the link below/scan the QR code
- Must be a JCLS PhD candidate, MS student, or postdoc to participate; anyone welcome to attend and watch!

RSVP TO THE INFO SESSION:
(THURSDAY JANUARY 19 AT 3PM)
HTTPS://FORMS.OFFICE.COM/R/EUQM6MHUFJ

