Site Subscription

Site Subscriptions are a convenient, affordable way to access or distribute the application throughout your organization (Academic or Commercial). Please use the filters below to verify if you are eligible to access and download your copy of ChemDraw. If you do not have a Site Subscription and would like to obtain one, please get in touch with us by clicking here.

The latest version of ChemDraw is available via the PerkinElmer Download Center, which requires the user to register before downloading. The PerkinElmer Site Subscription web page remains available to access Cloud Applications.

Please use the Quick Start Guide to learn how to quickly register and activate your copy of ChemDraw and ChemOffice+ Cloud.

Search for Institution

2. Look for your institution by typing the name in the "Search for Institution" field.
3. The first option will be for registering to download the latest version of ChemDraw/ChemOffice, shown here:

of the list to find the associated Activation Code you will need to activate your version of ChemDraw or ChemOffice. If this order does not contain your Activation Code, move to the order number(s) below until you find your Activation Code. The Activation Code is in the format of a 16-digit, four-part code.

Install and Activate ChemDraw/ChemOffice:

1. Once you have completed the download of the software to your computer, find the Windows (.exe) or Mac (.dmg) file to run the installer. (Do not begin installation before the download is completed to 100%.)
2. Note: during installation, if a previous version of ChemDraw/ChemOffice (v17 and up) is detected, the installer may not prompt you for activation. If it does not ask for activation, then you are ready to run ChemDraw.
3. If it does ask for activation, go to the Order History option as indicated in the section above (Find your Activation Code) to find your site's Activation Code.
4. In the PerkinElmer Software Activation, find the Activation Code field and enter your 16-digit, four-part code.
